But the flesh is weak

Ofcourse
one last smoke
before quitting for good won't be of harm-

Oh did you use the same logic with your affairs? I am sure it will work out with this at it did with them

I would strangle
you, but I know you are right

Don't beat yourself up, you couldn't even if you tried

Wait, you mean killing you or sleeping aroud?

Indeed

Hey that's not good cop like-

Sure it is,
I'm giving you a warning before raising the voltage by a lethal amount

P-please!

I'm just doing my duty!

Duty, huh...

Well, then how have all those footprints with honey and wax residue slipped your diligent gaze?

Oh that? That stuff is dripping everywhere since I started, they told me it's nothing special

So you're tellin' me that you just bought it without any second guessing?!!

I dunno, thought aristocrats are into bee-keeping,
hence "royal jelly" ...

If true, this revelation is more shocking than the palm you avoided...

But about the same as my fist

You really are better
at bad cop

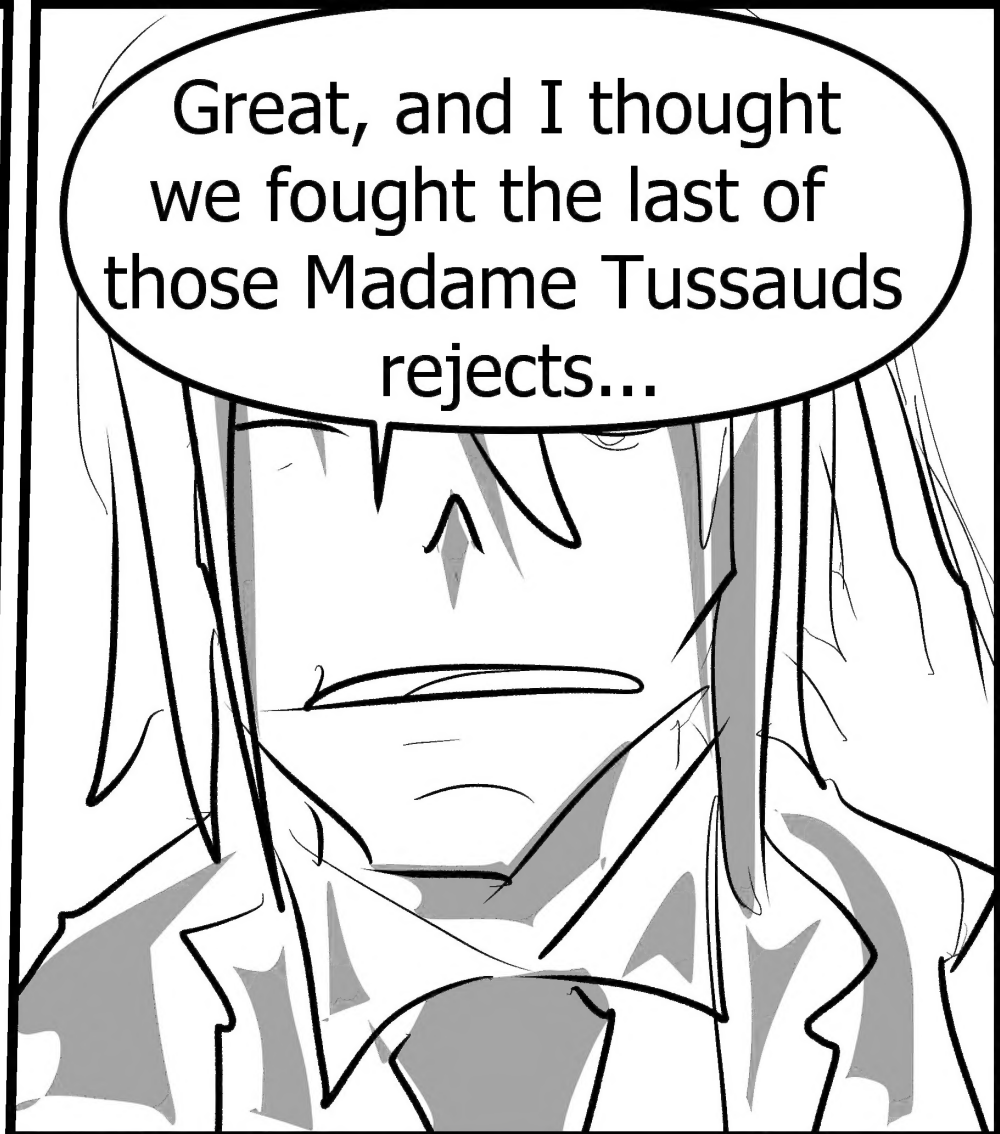

Those ceremonial
clowns regularly
trample over kids, so this a lot less than they deserve...

AUCH

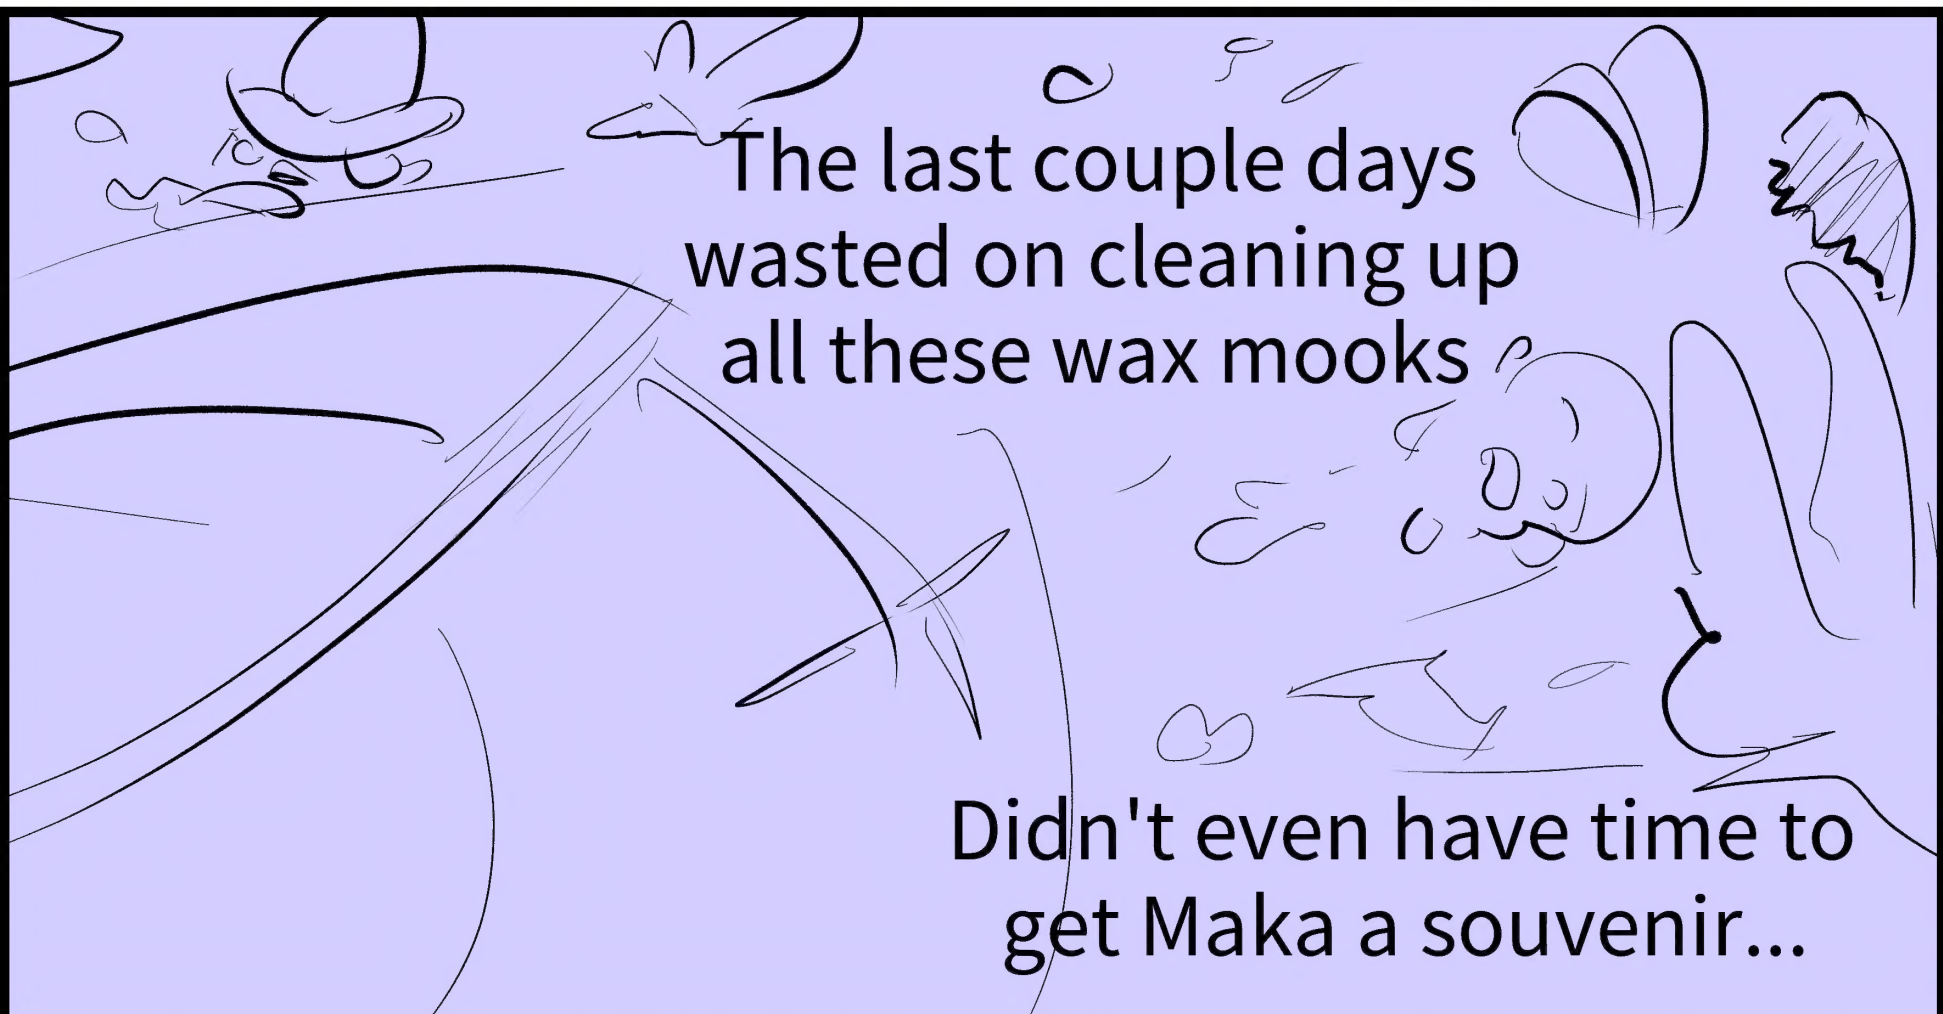

Hmm, the same residual wax...

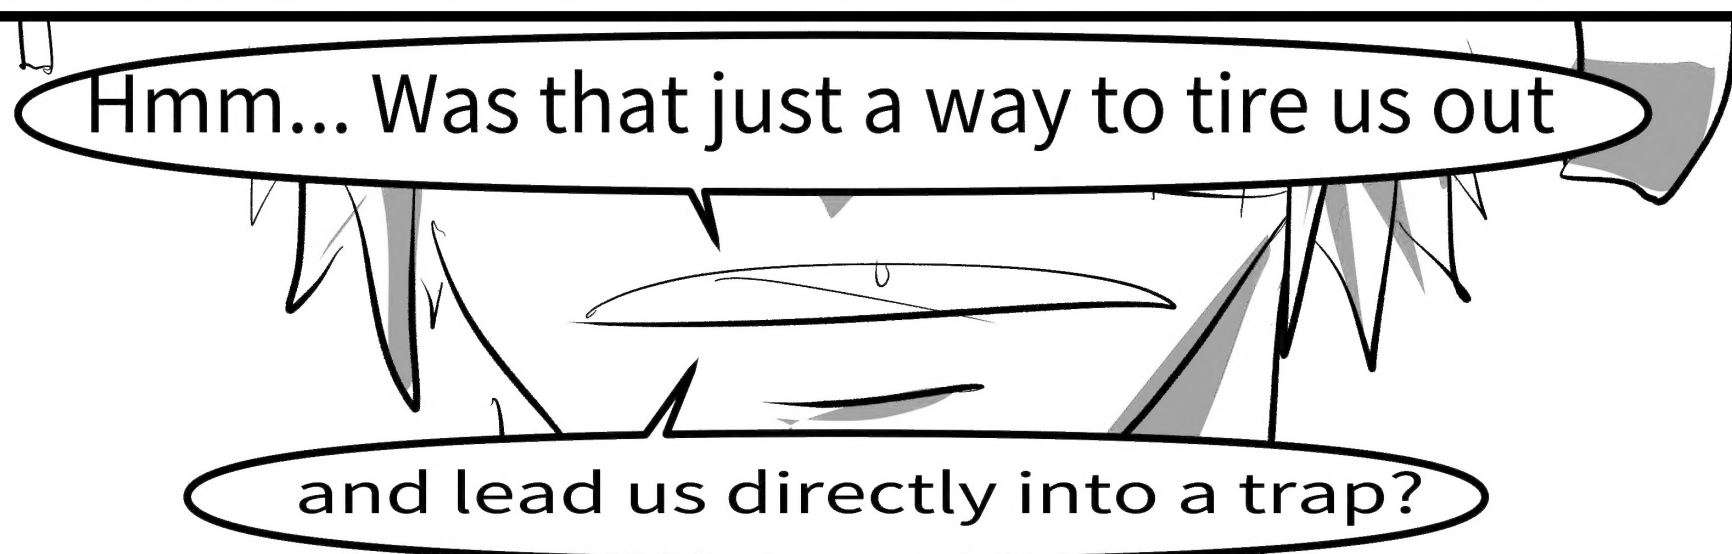

Great, and I thought we fought the last of those Madame Tussauds rejects...

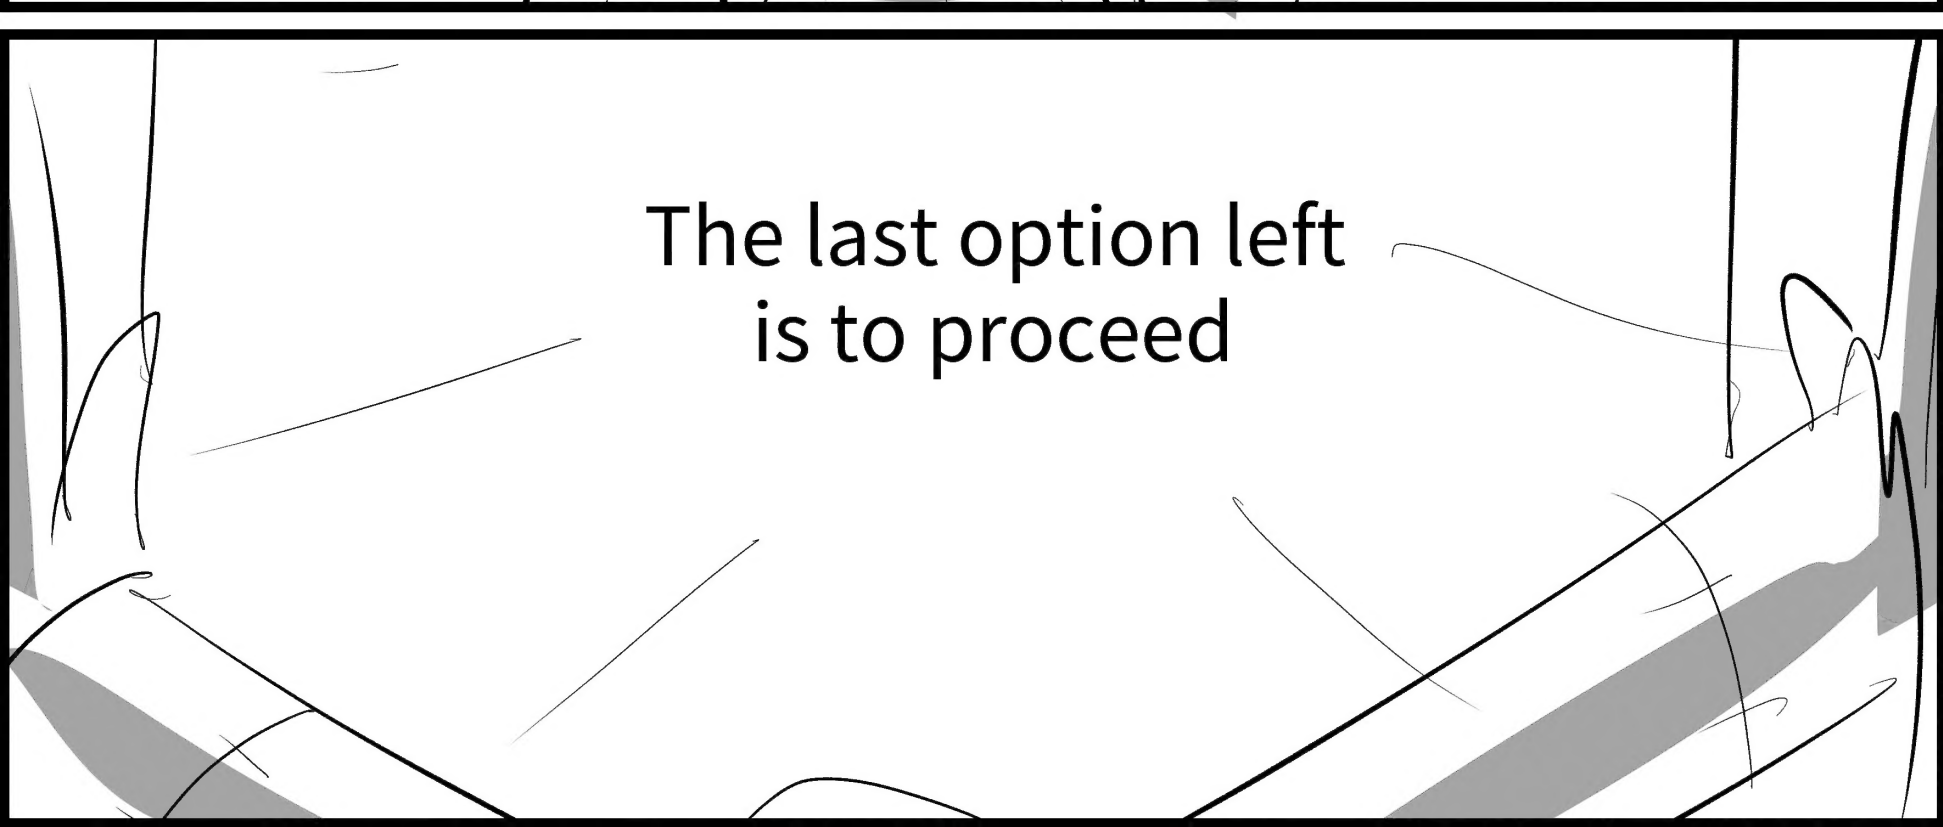

The last couple days wasted on cleaning up all these wax mooks

Didn't even have time to get Maka a souvenir...

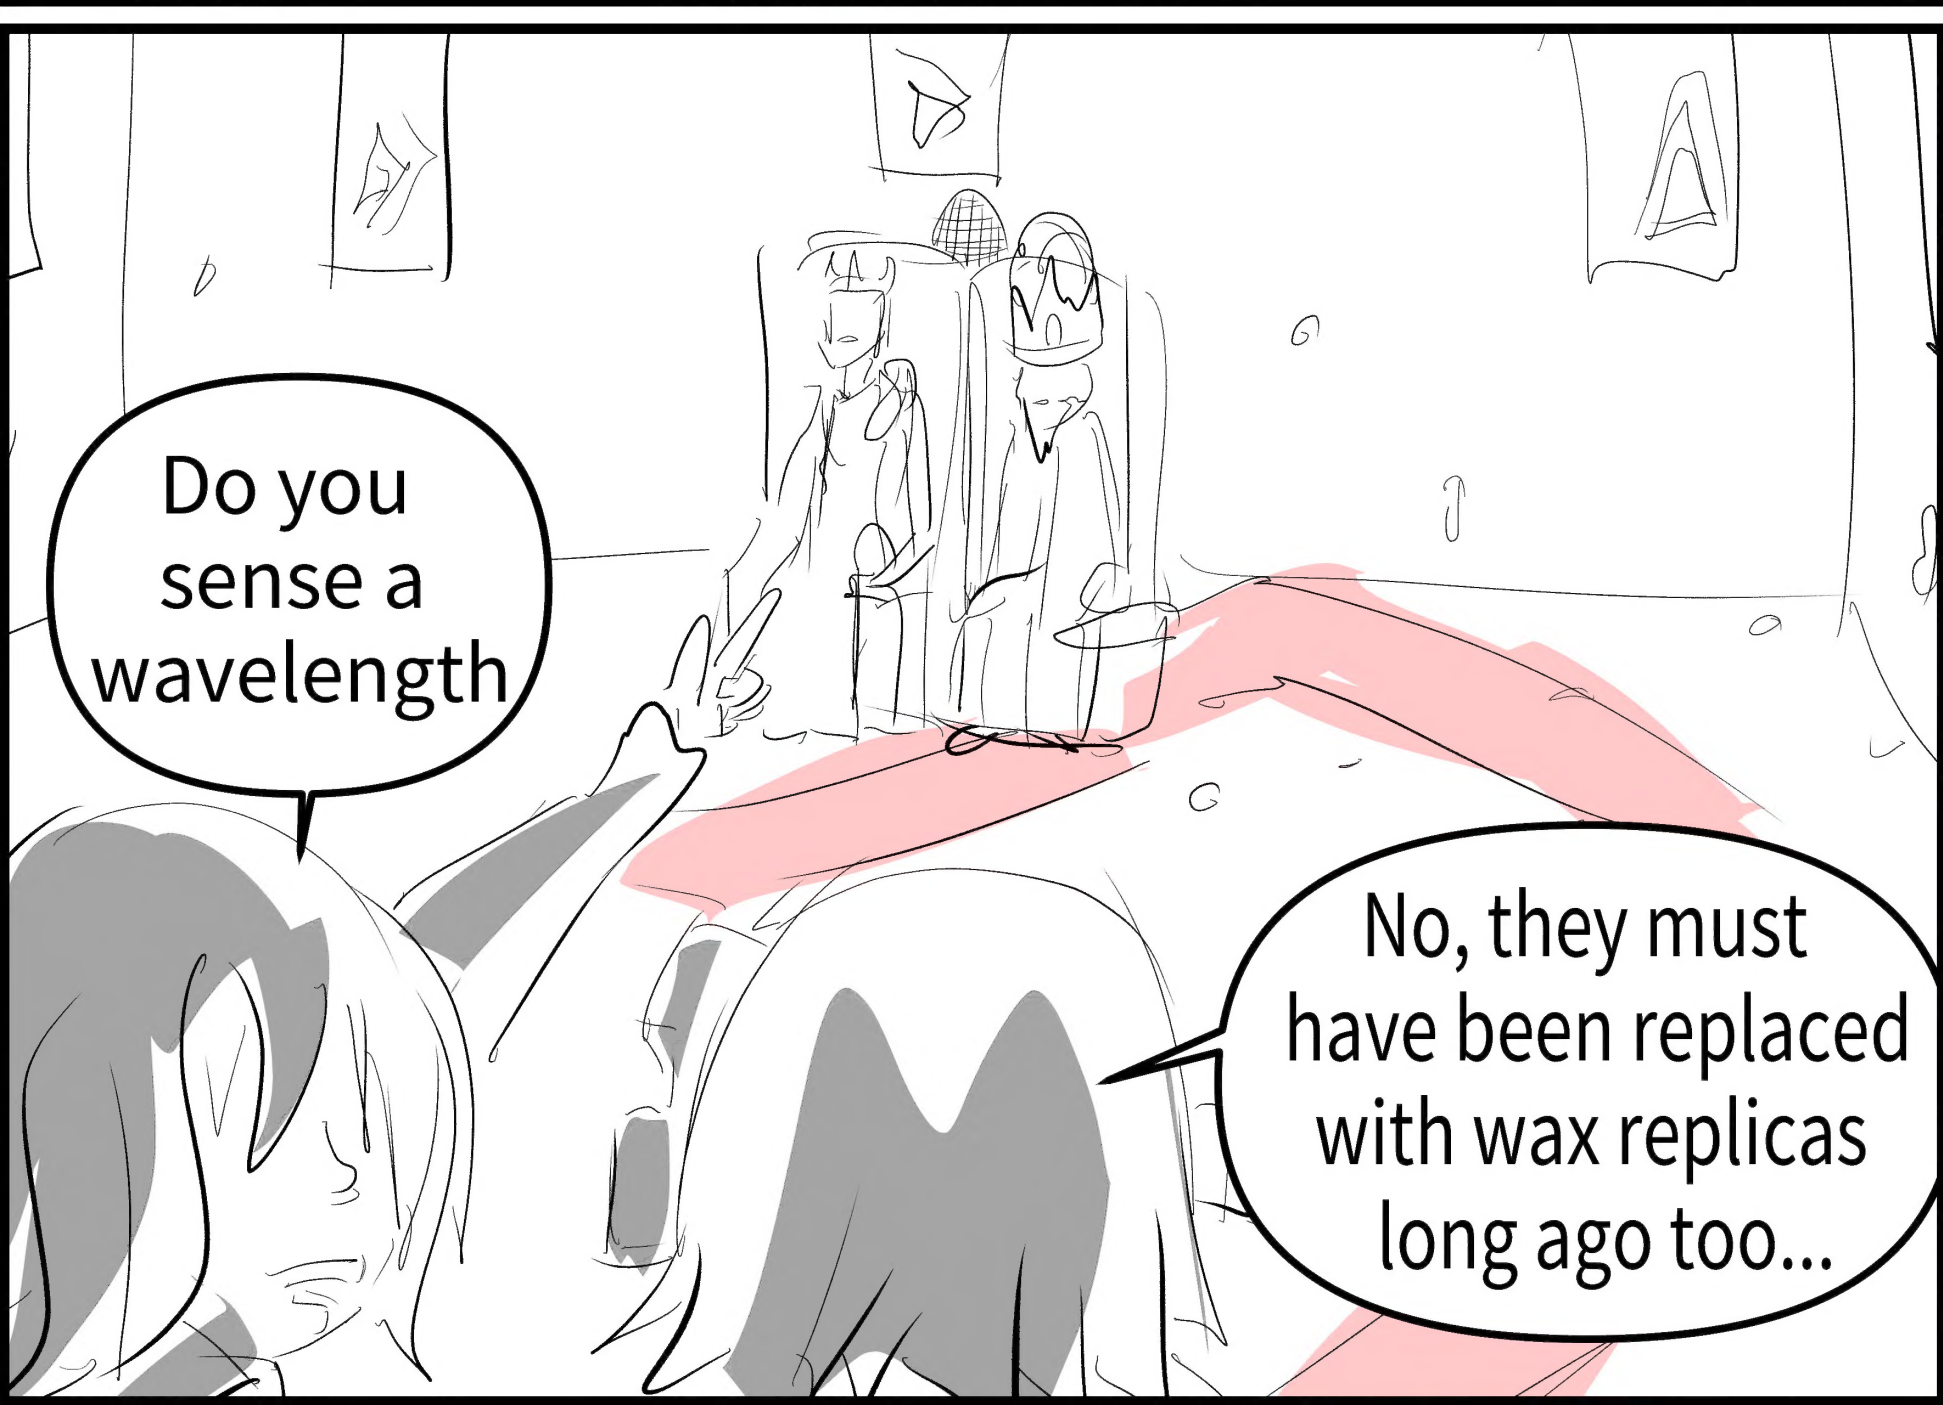

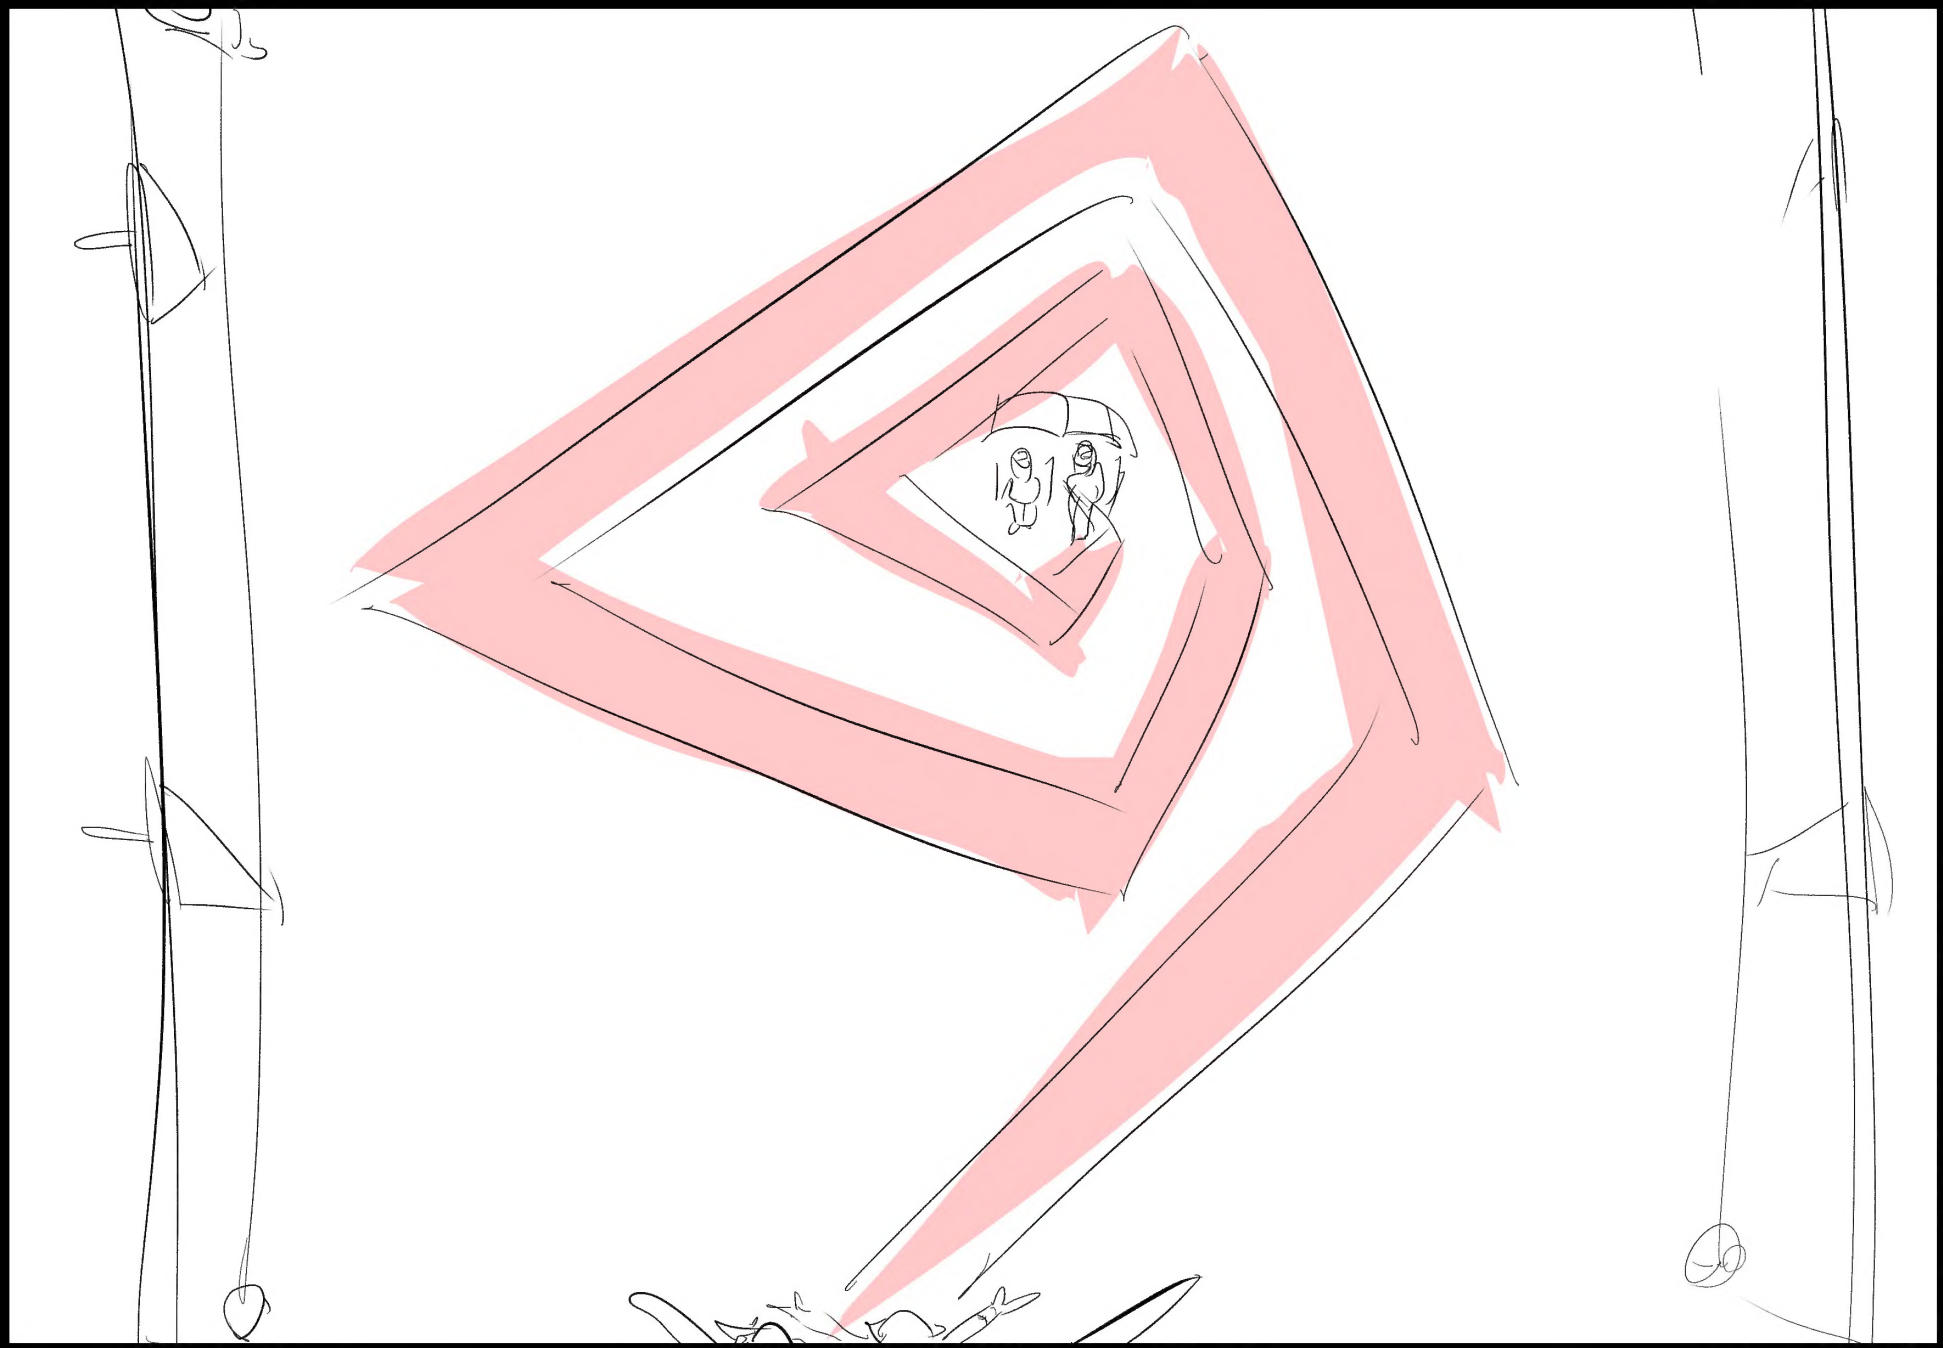

Hmm... Was that just a way to tire us out and lead us directly into a trap?

"Replaced"?

That's one way of putting it

Spirit

Right

You must be the witch that is responsible

When did you assassinate the royal family and under who's orders?

Can one kill that which was never alive?

My
ginger boy...

Now
you lie

But so
Bee it!

Bring it to me!

*Bz-bzz-buzz***

All of you!

Sacrifice it to me!

That heavenly nectar!

CRUMBLE

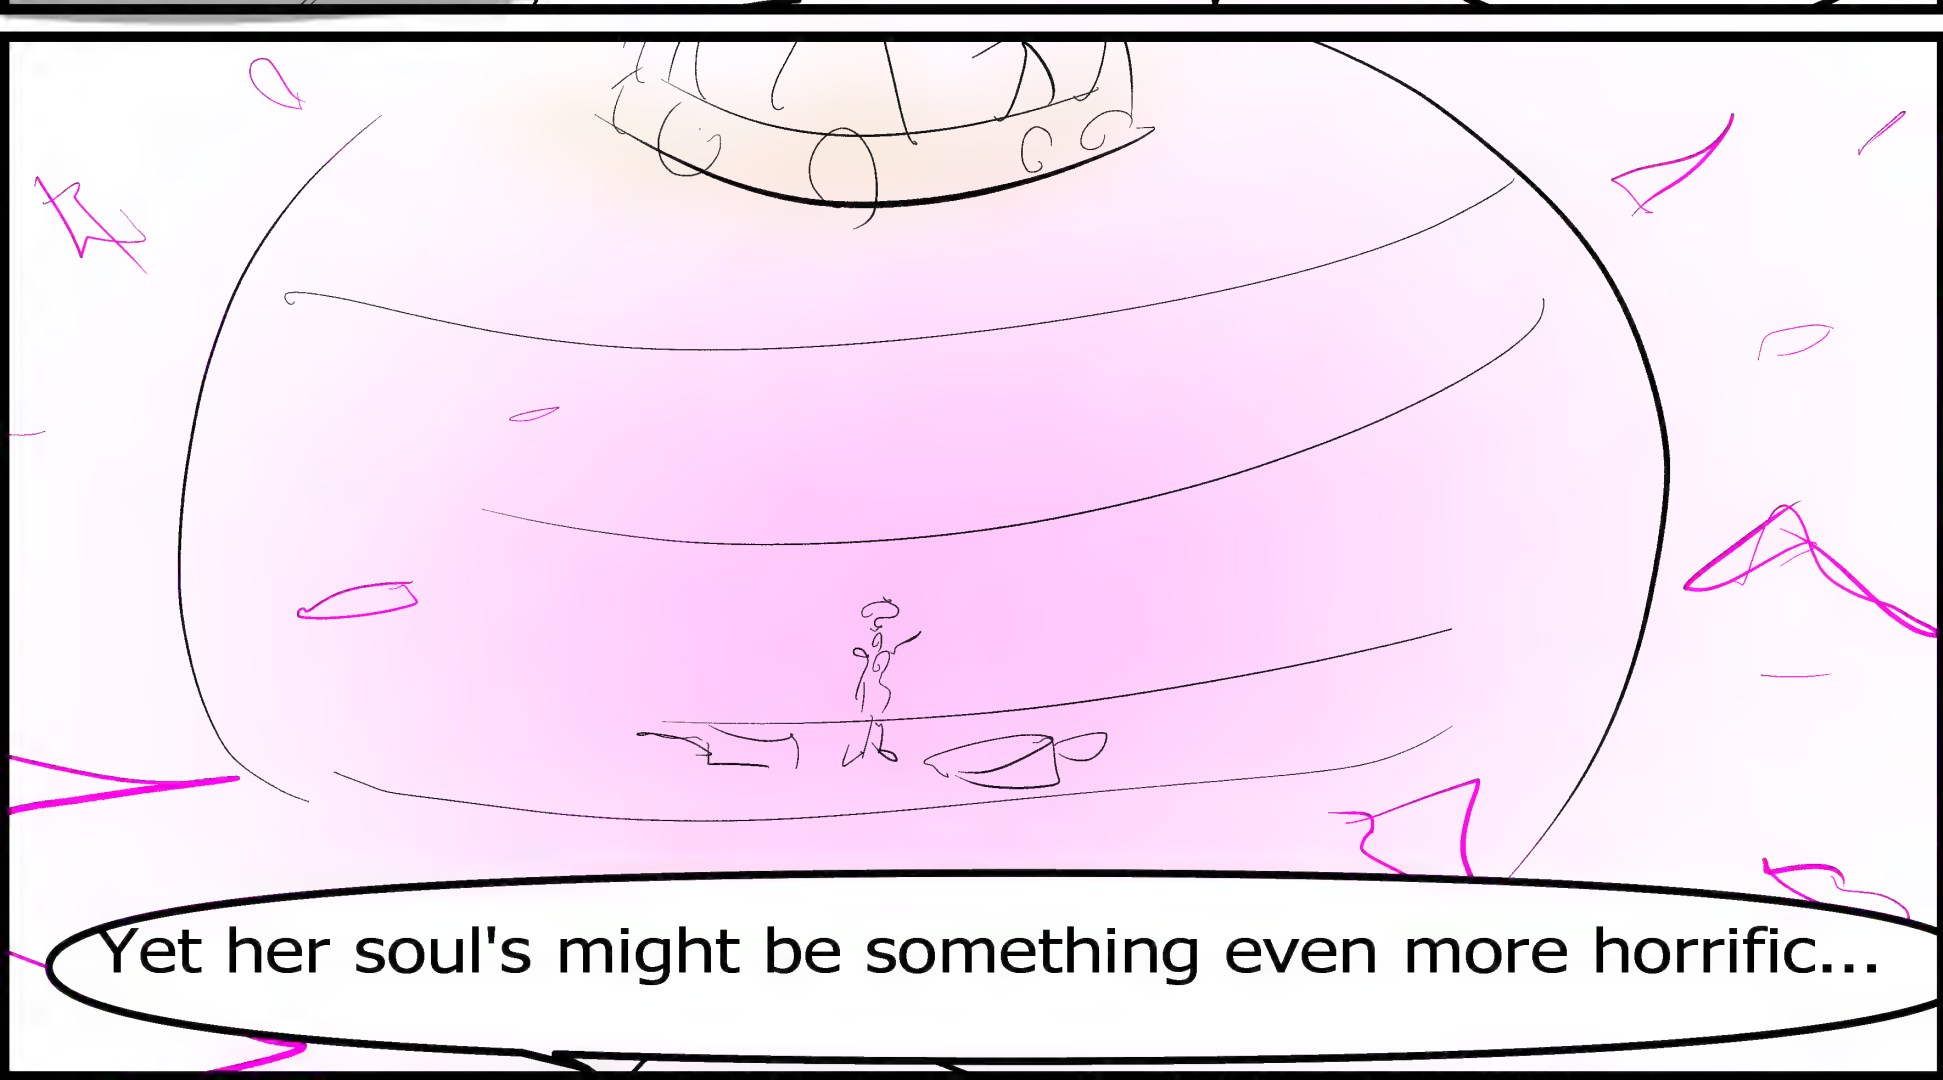

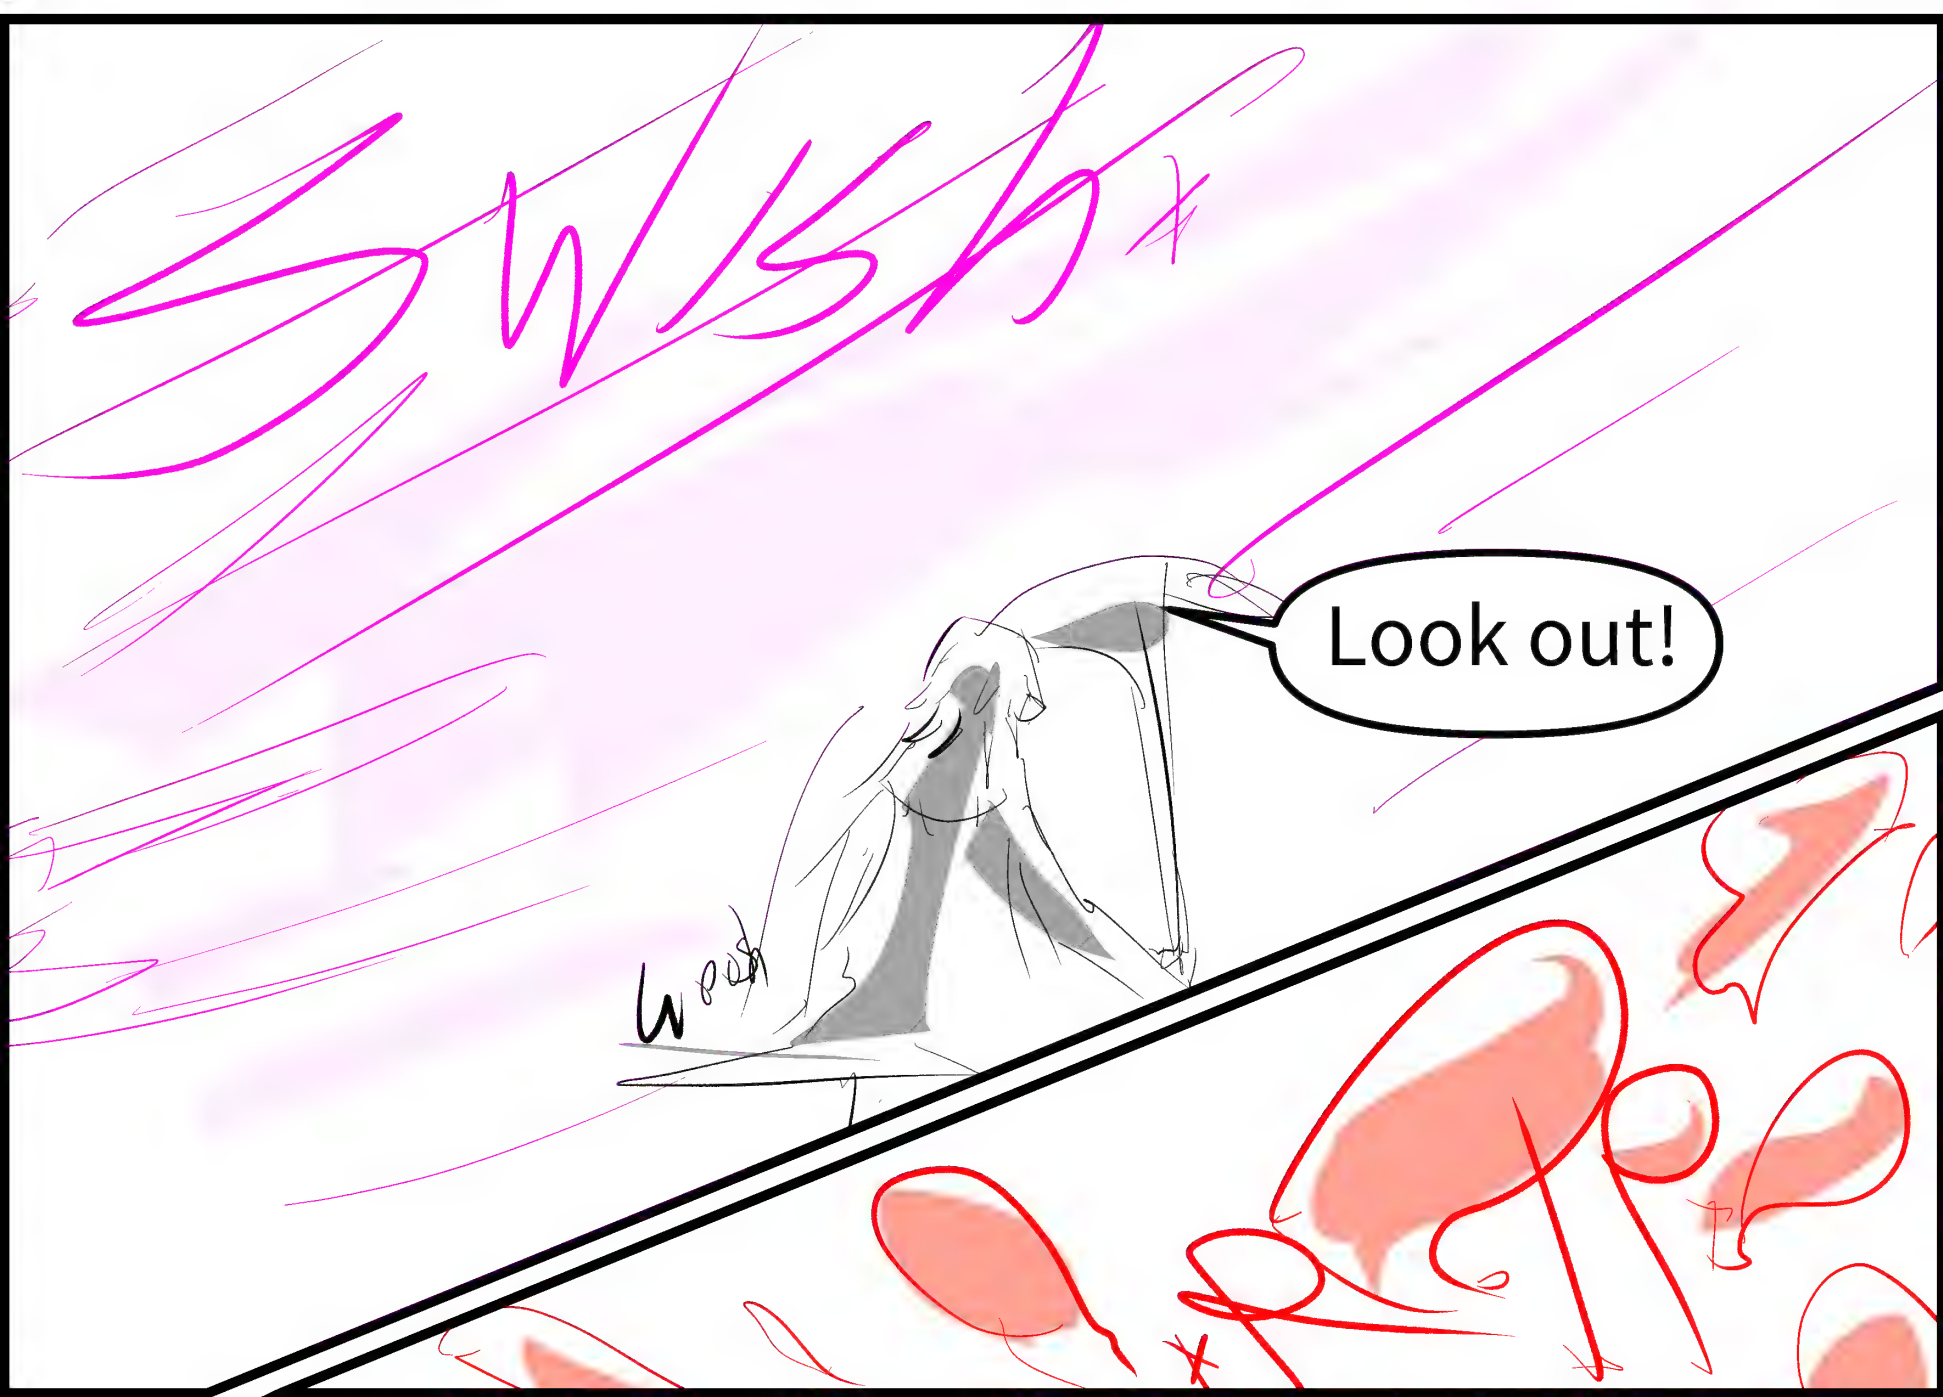

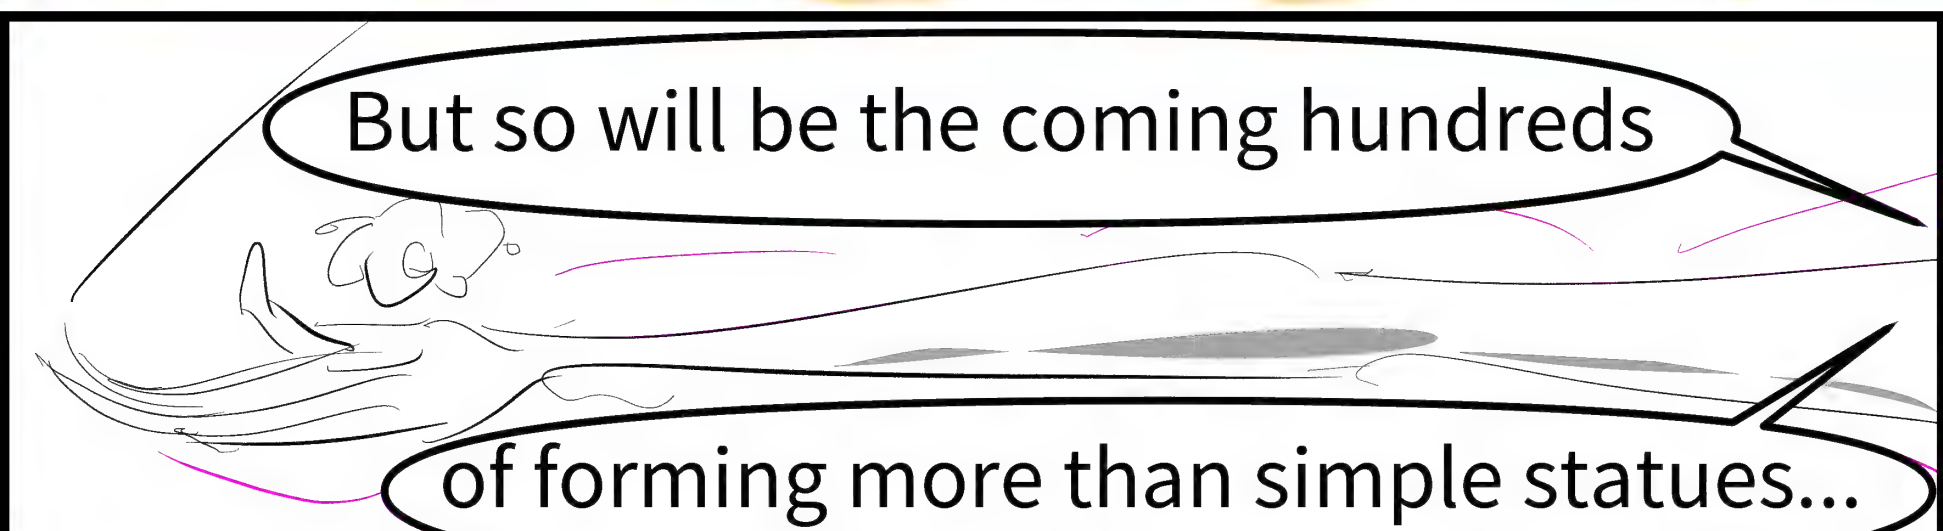

What is going on?

CRACK

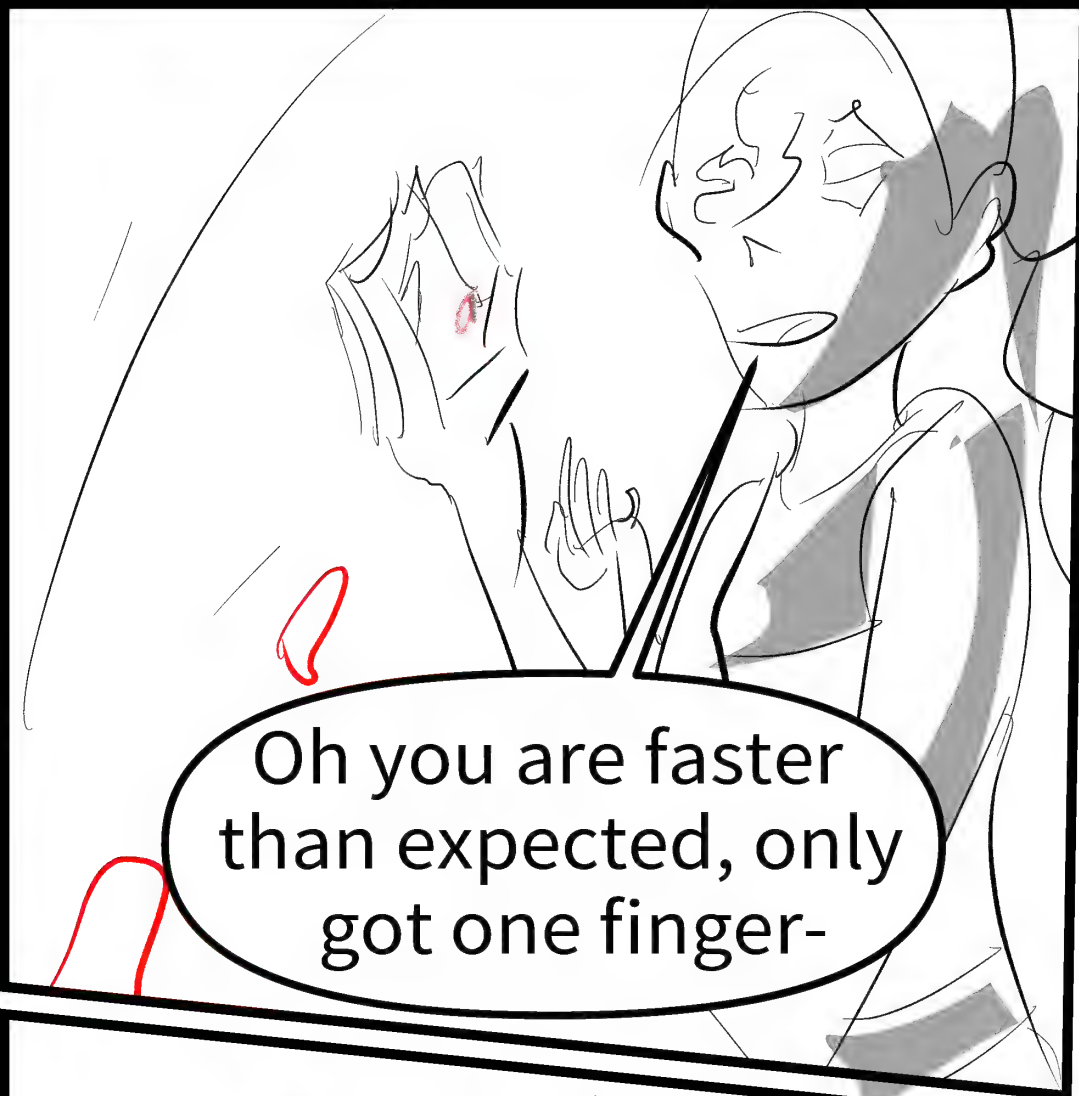

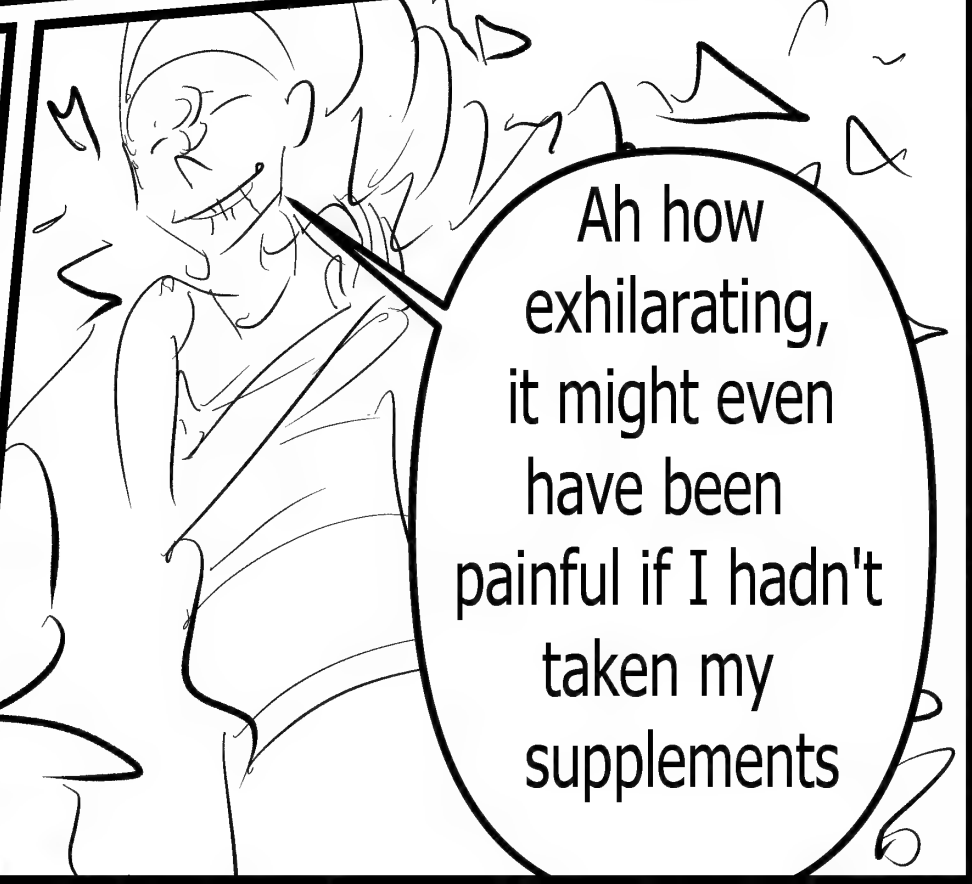

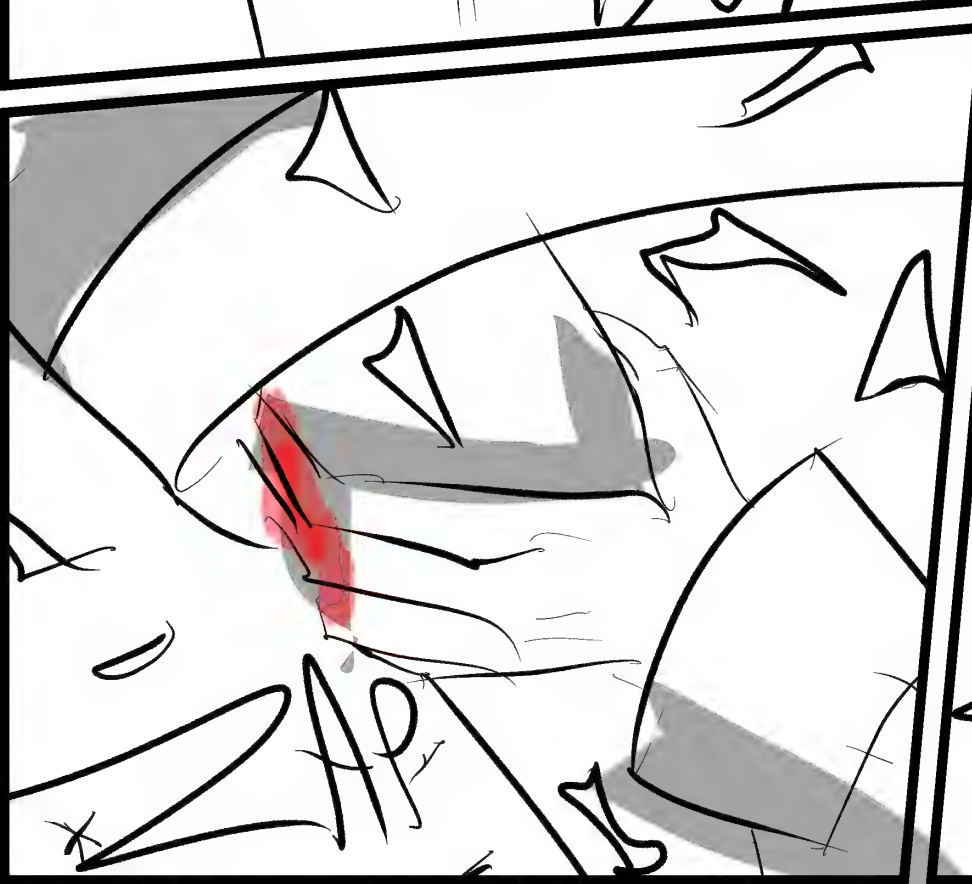

Oh you are faster than expected, only got one finger-

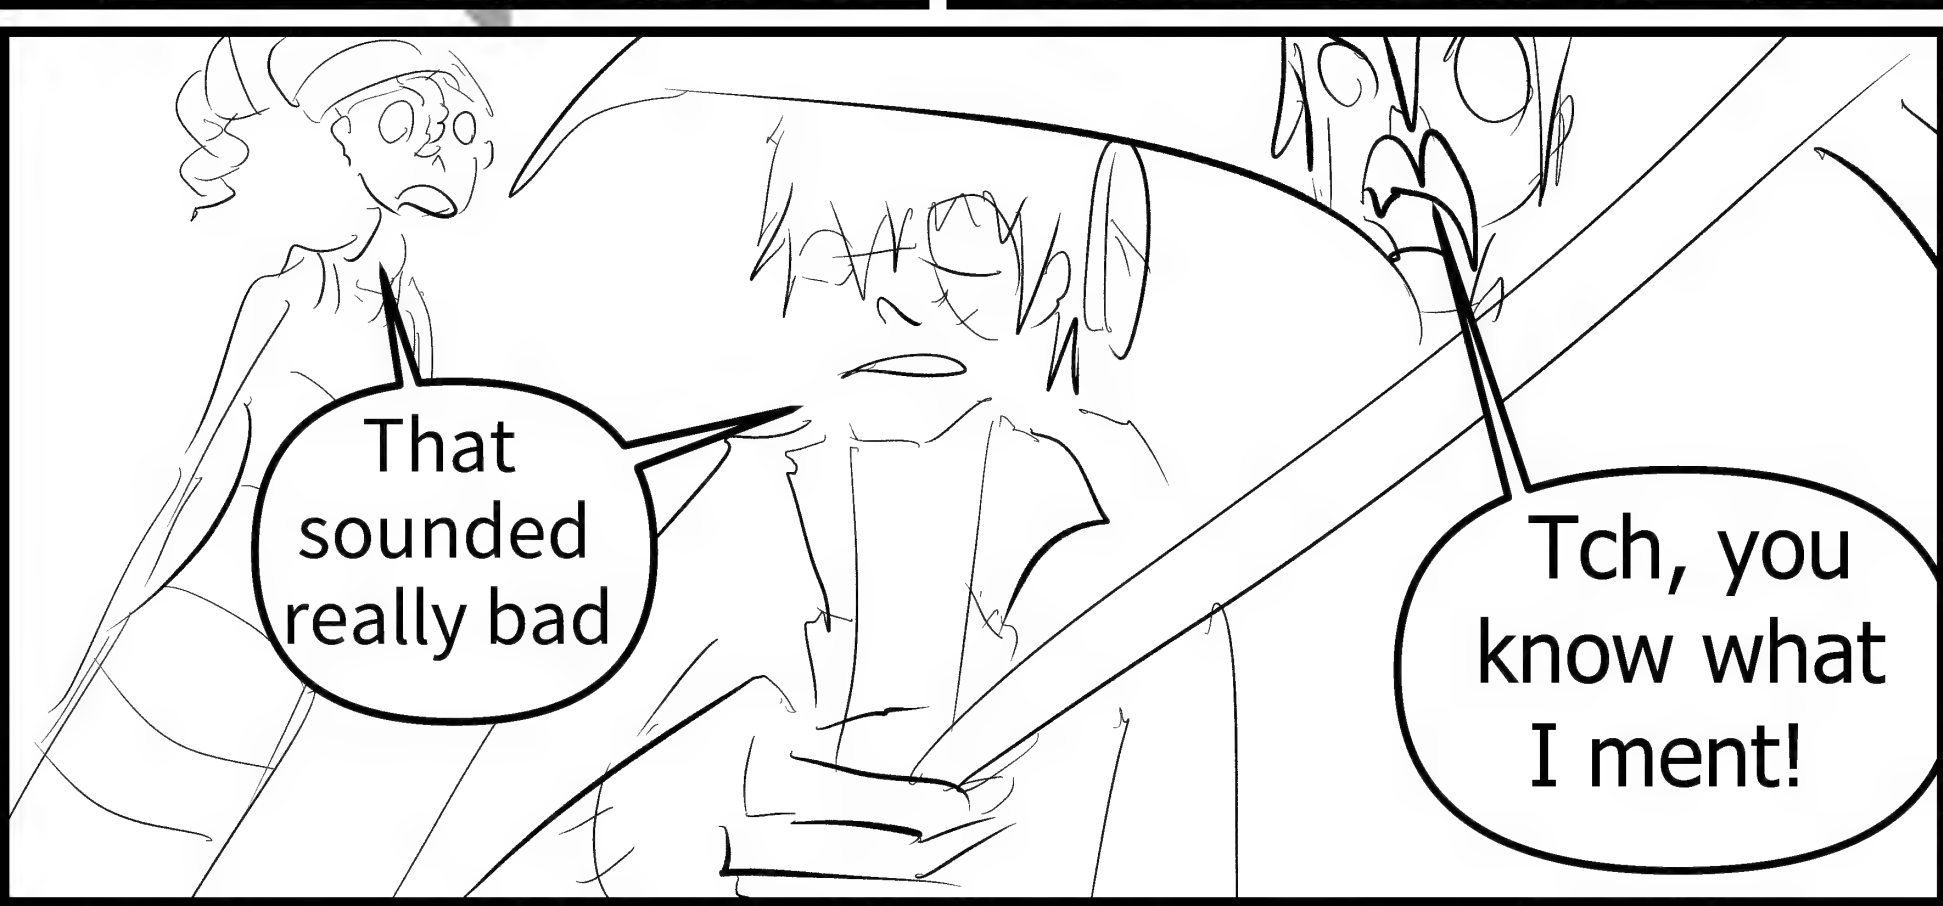

And more focused!

Didn't flinch at all!

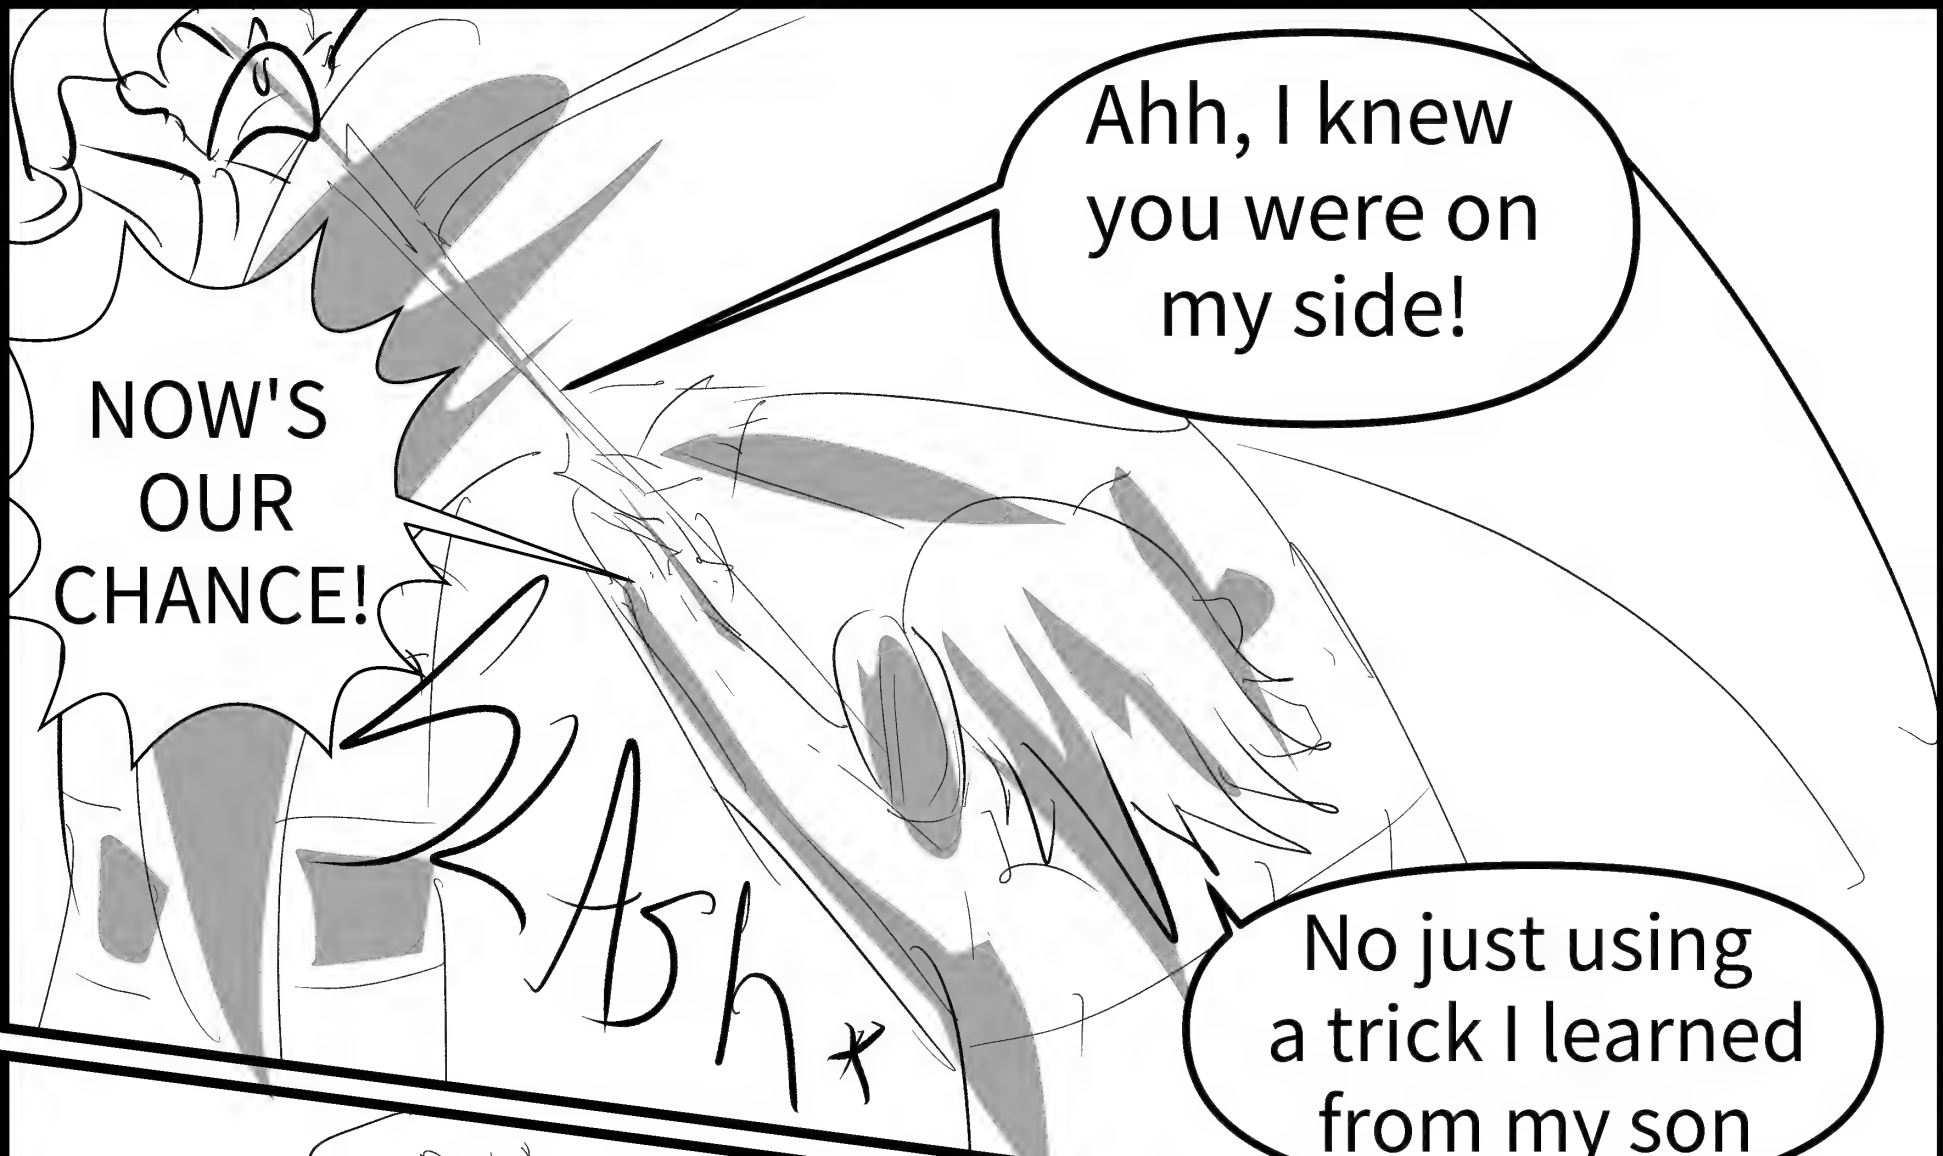

Stein, are you-

Ah how exhilarating, it might even have been painful if I hadn't taken my supplements

Ahh, I knew you were on my side!

NOW'S
CHANCE!

No just using a trick I learned from my son

Yet I fear
it barely startled her exoskeleton

And enraged wasps are the most dangerous

How dare you ruin
our shared moment
of disgust

Ugh

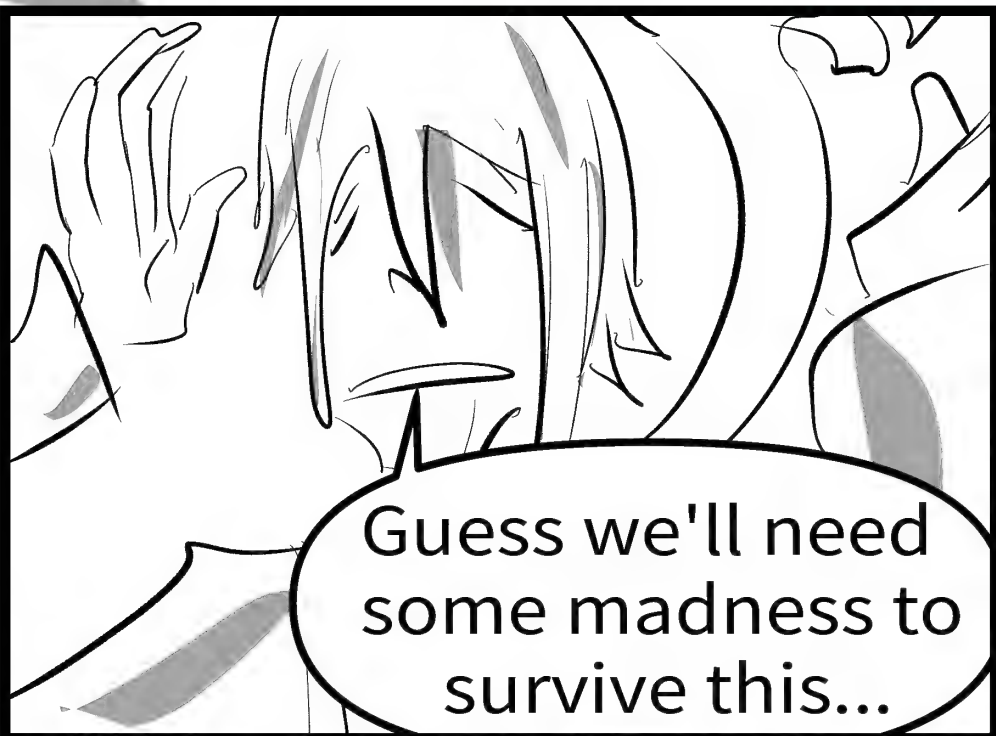

Stein!

D-don't worry...

Just more opportunities for stitches

Guess we'll need some madness to survive this...

Maybe this time the opposite will be the case...

huh-

Oh, I understand

For someone claiming to have sculpted the history of a whole nation

She sure attacks

as uncoordinated
as a drunk chav...

Still, a physical strength that far surpasses Medusa will make a difficult confrontation

Now I got you!

NOW!

That would have been too easy, but now a dispatchment plan is clear cut

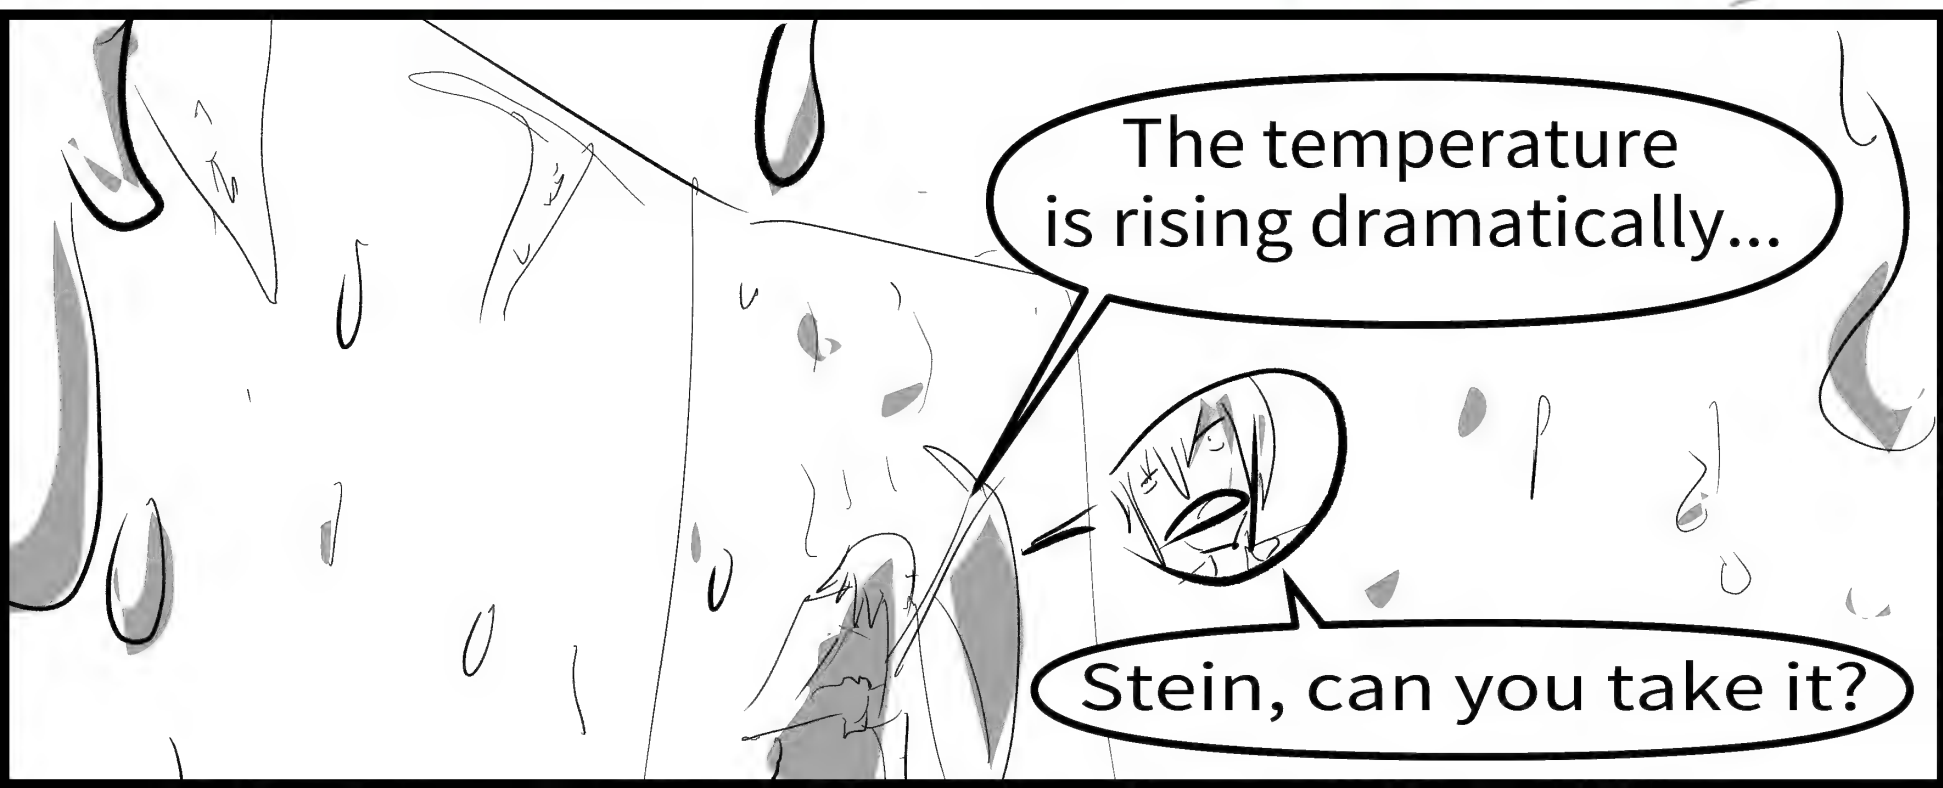

YOU KNOW NOTHING!

Like how badly you can take the heat!

WAX

METDOWN

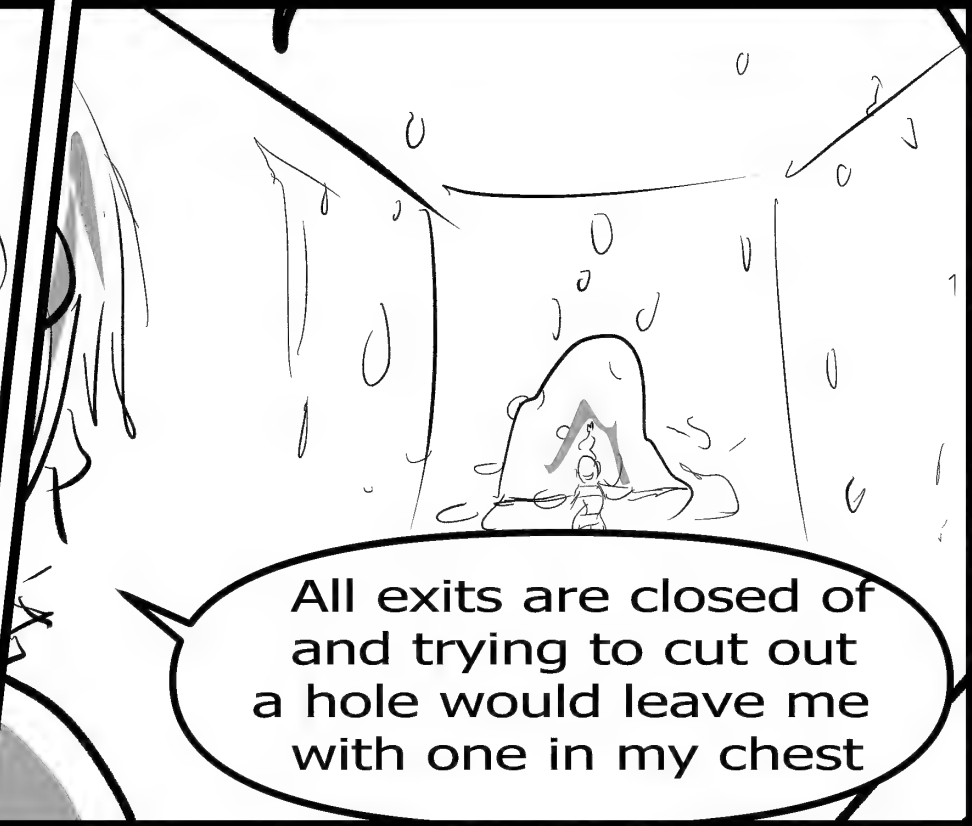

The temperature is rising dramatically...

Stein, can you take it?

I'll have too

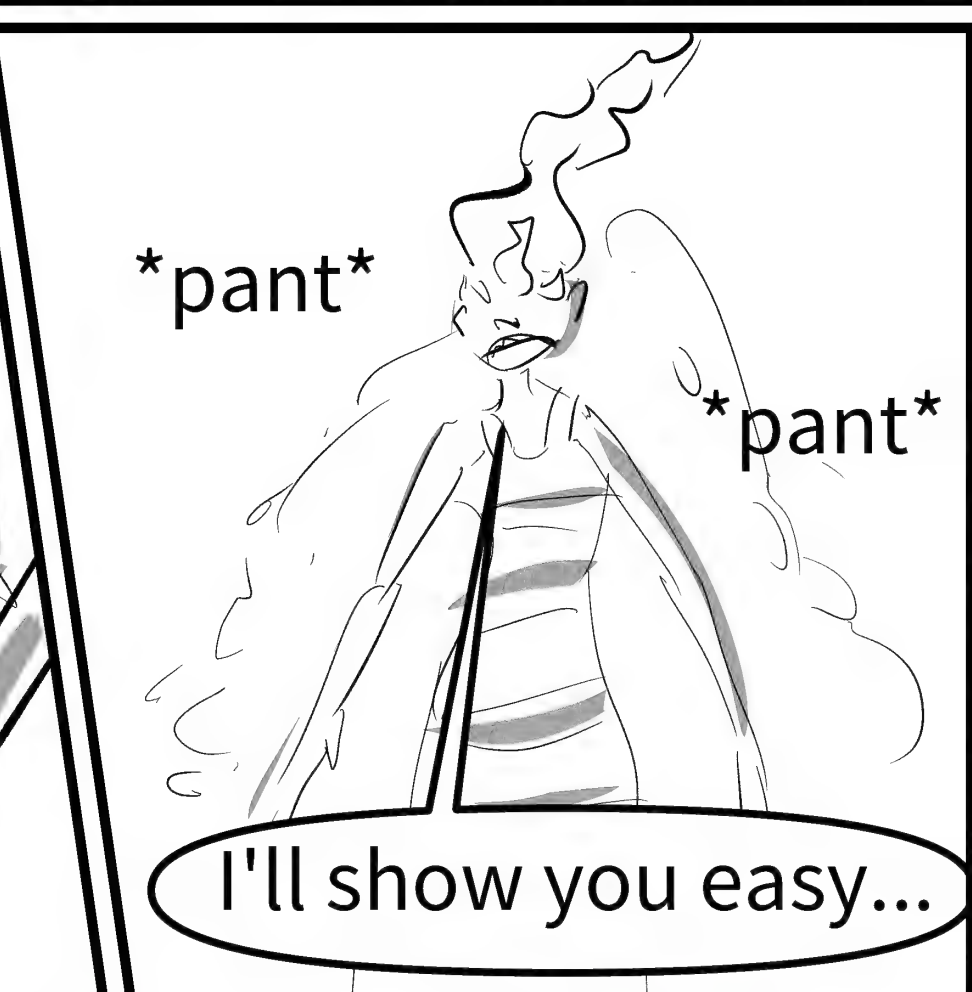

All exits are closed of and trying to cut out a hole would leave me with one in my chest

S-so y-you mean it will be easy

...Yeah

*pant*

*pant*

I'll show you easy...

WAX LANCE

BZZ

once more

Soul

Resonance

DIE!

Lost
stitches

I won't fall
for that twice!

You will, forgot your little shock therapy from the start?

Now's our chance

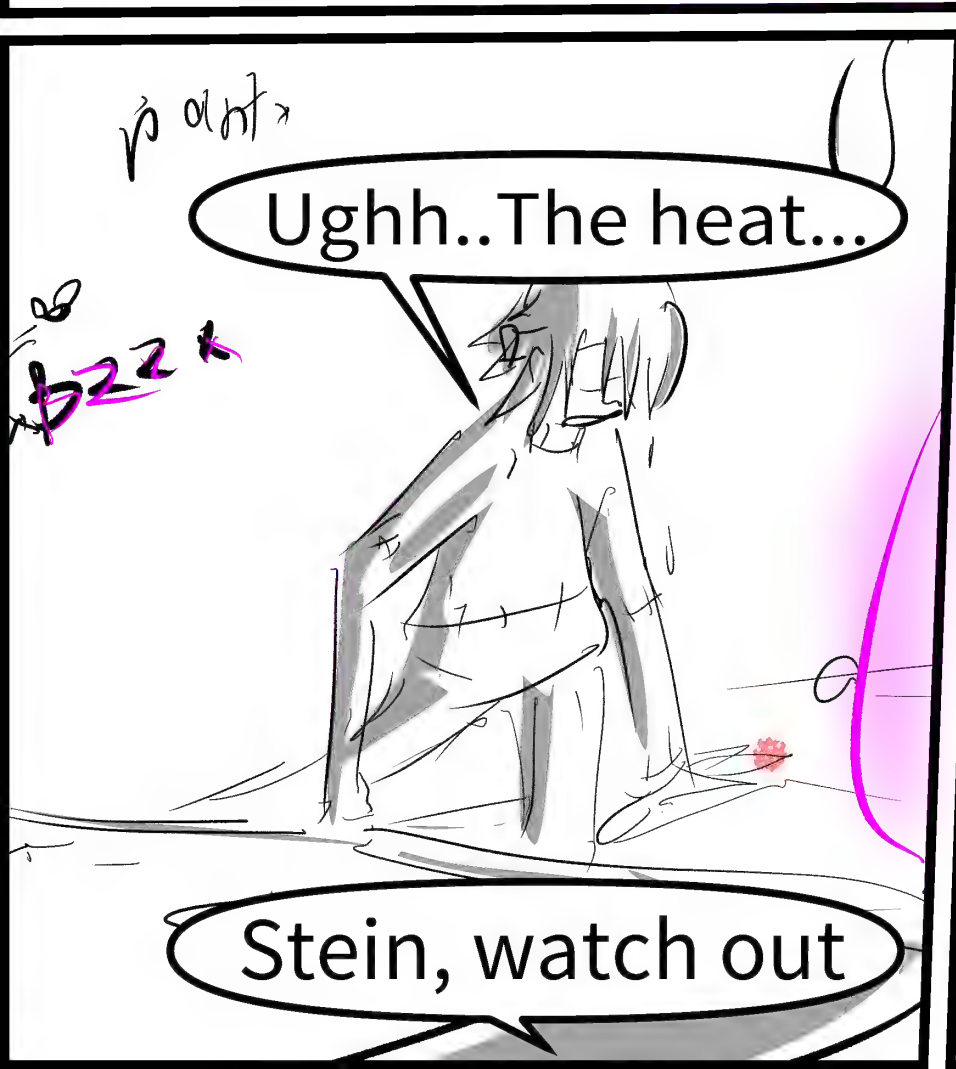

A black and white comic panel. On the left, a character with a speech bubble is shown. The speech bubble contains the text: "No, you won't take me apart!". To the right of the character, there is a large, stylized pink sound effect that reads "BZZ" twice, with a plus sign between them. In the bottom right corner, there is a small pink signature that reads "Gizmo".

A hand-drawn sketch of a person's face, possibly a woman, with a speech bubble. The drawing is done in a loose, expressive style with black outlines and some grey shading. The person has dark hair and is looking slightly to the right. A speech bubble with a black outline and a tail pointing to the mouth contains the text "A feeble mind can't avoid cliches". There are some pinkish-purple scribbles around the face, possibly representing hair or a background element.

A feeble mind can't avoid cliches

[illegible]

+ SWISH!

Hah!

Now to make an exit

SWISH

SWISH

SWISH

SWISH

SWISH

SWISH

This will do

SWISH

Any more and the whole building will colapse on itself

x PUSH x

B237

This would look so bad out of context

The doctor
made it through,
now for myself-

R237

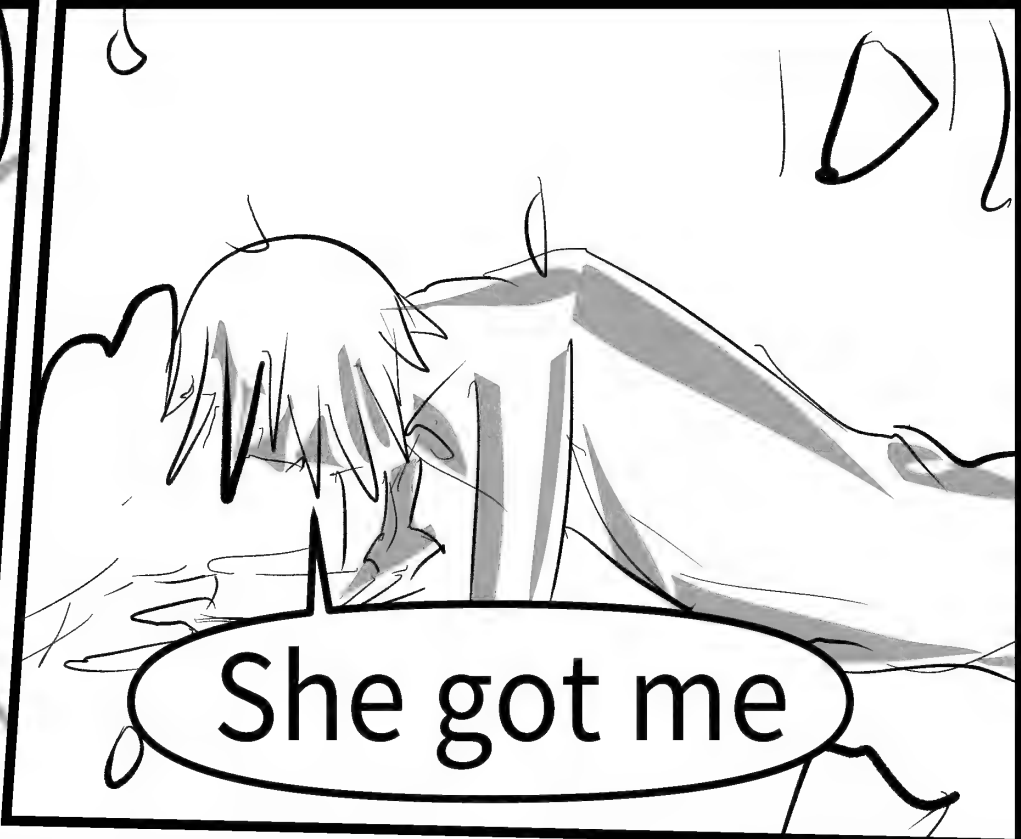

x STING x

AAN

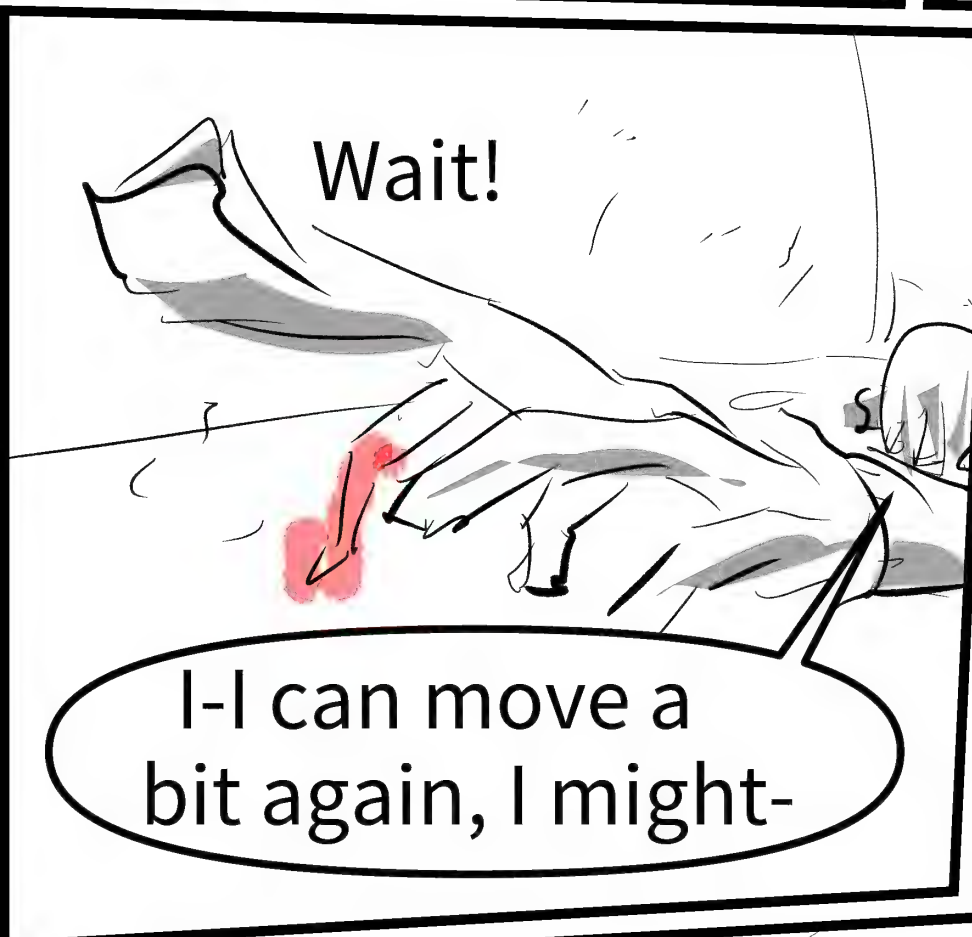

SPIRIT?!!

What ha-

She got me

Wait!

I-I can move a bit again, I might-

Ah shit, to go out like this, I don't even have an allergy...

S-spirit transform into a weapon and then-

It's not working

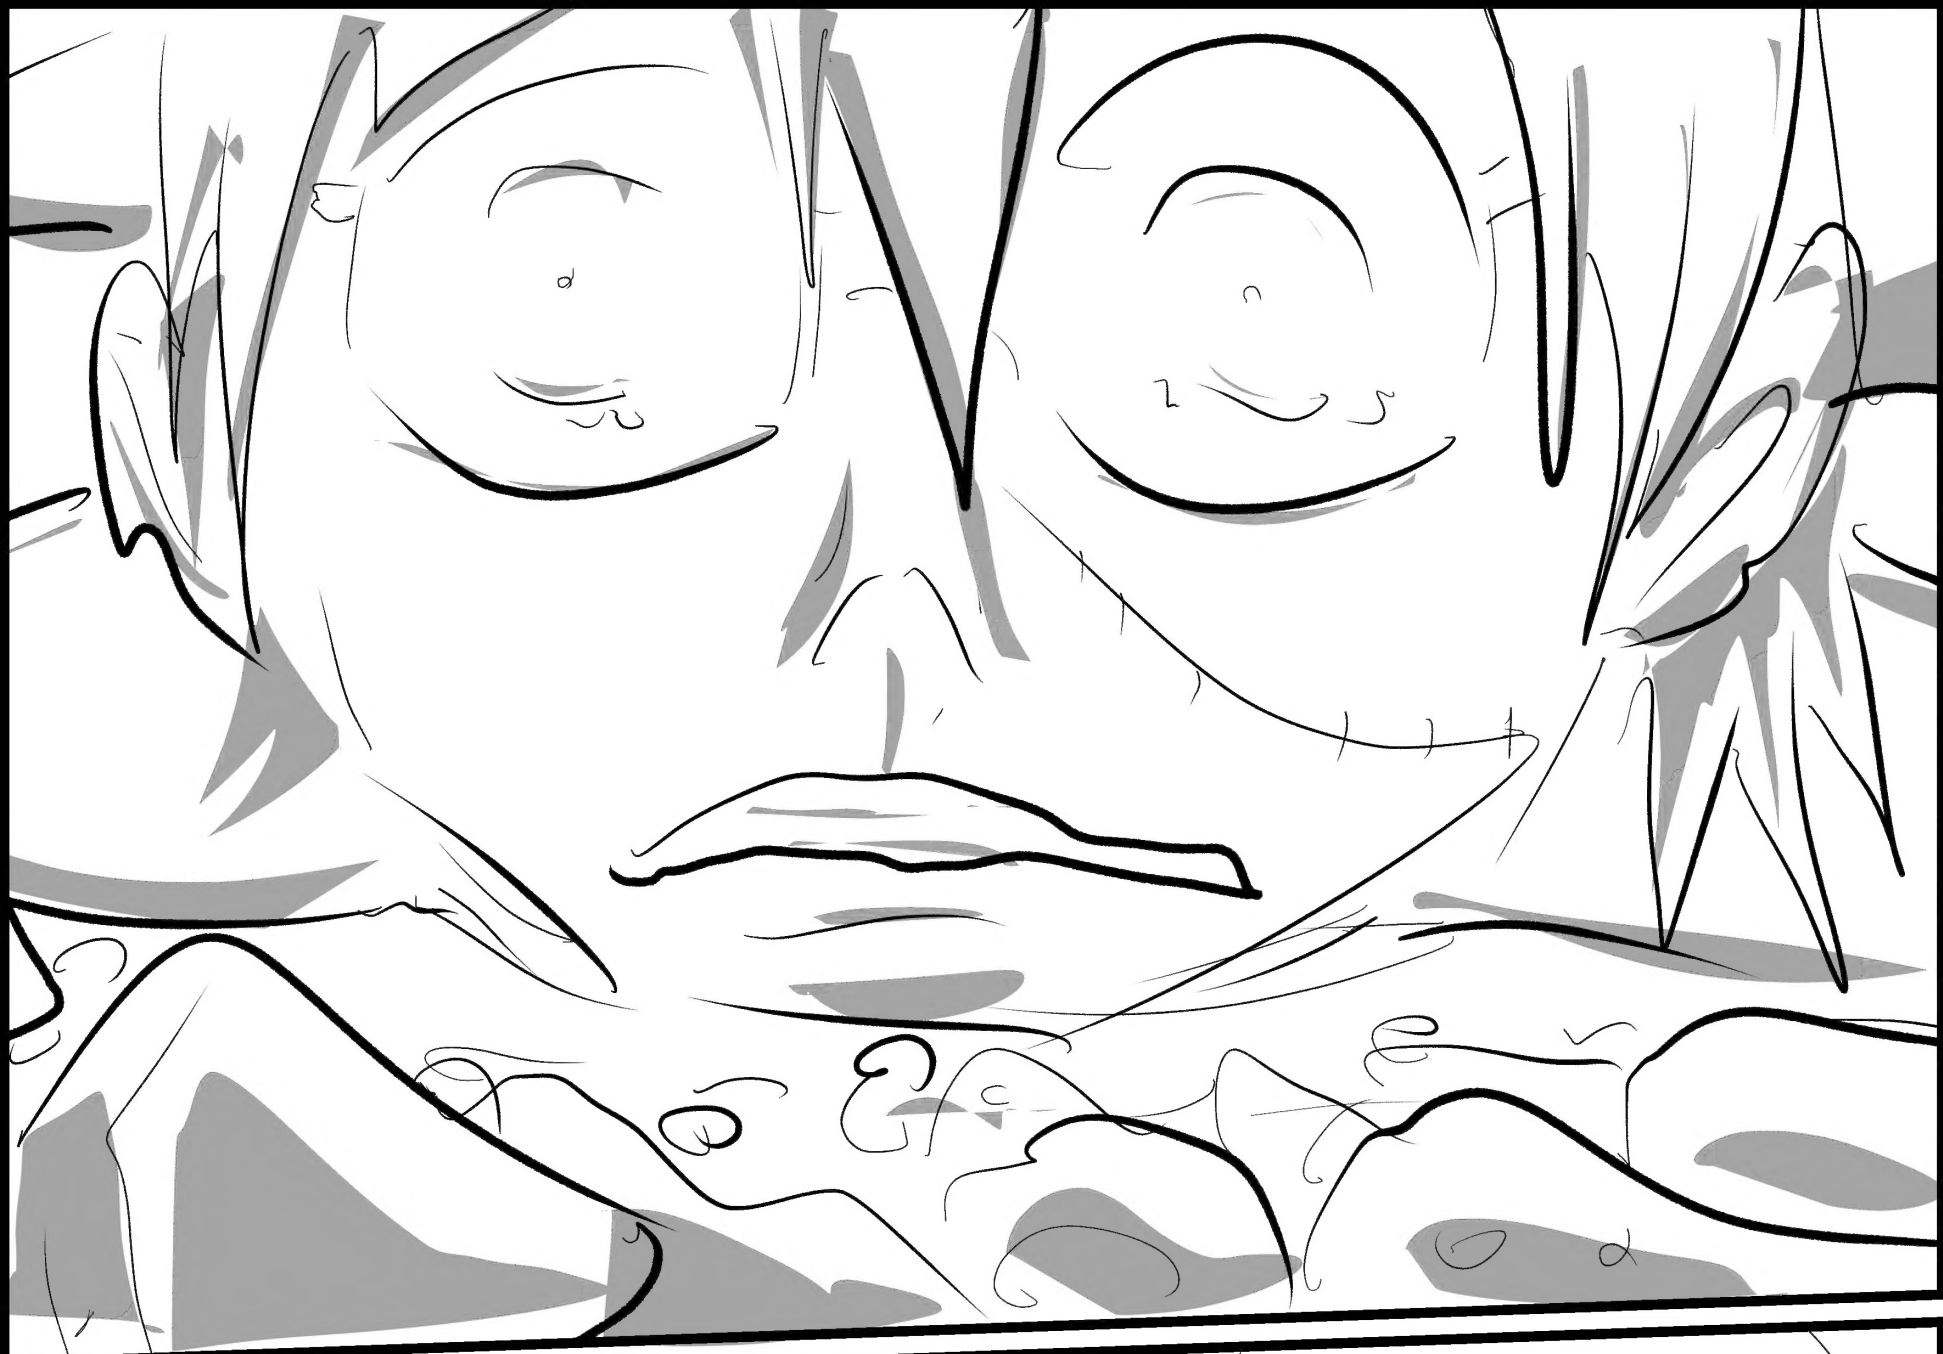

Hey Stein...

tell Makai I love-

UNABLE

The next day

When the rubble
was cleared

What the
you too?

Hah hah looks like a dick

The workers laughed
after finding a comically well preserved finger

Glibly
saying:

"Doc put it in a cold stored jar and then you'll attach it right back on time!"

Normally Stein
would be delighted in freaking them out by sharing how much experience he has
with such procedures

But he took it

Without uttering a word

Because of his best friend, not even that remained

Just a blue orb
